From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.] Washington, D. C., April 27.

The case of ex-Senate Senator Geo. E. Green, of Binghamton, New York, reached the Supreme Court of the United States today. Green rests under three indictments in postal fraud cases and three orders have been granted removing him to Washington, D. C., for trial. These orders were granted by Judge Ray, in the United States District Court at Syracuse, New York, that judge dismissing the pending writs of habeas corpus. The orders were stayed pending the appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States, which was received today. The government through the Assistant Attorney General will move that the appeal be dismissed on the ground that it is frivolous, intended only to occasion delay, and raising no point that has not already been considered and decided in the case of Geo. W. Beavers.

According to a decision rendered by the Manila Court of Customs of Appeals, copies of which have been received here, contract laborers may be admitted into the Philippines under certain conditions. The case in question is that of Ramirez & Co., who imported six lithographers from Germany under contract, paying their passage across. The decision of the court is that a criminal action in such a case does not lie, the remedy being a civil suit. The government will take an appeal.

Additional details have been received here dealing with the arrests made in the Philippines of those influential natives who are said to have been the real instigators of the recent troubles in Cavite and Batangas provinces. The most prominent of the captives are three brothers—Emiliano, Mariano and Vicente Riego de Dios. Emiliano was a general in command of a division during the insurrection, Mariano held the rank of brigadier general and Vicente was a colonel in the insurgent army. They are men of considerable wealth and are said to have been in frequent and direct communication with Montano, Felizard and other Ladrone leaders of the disaffected provinces. They are believed not only to have given the Ladrone information concerning the movements of the American troops, but to have lent them more material aid. The Philippine government considers their cases of great importance and Governor Wright has instructed Attorney General Willey to conduct the prosecution in person. It is said that the Riego de Dios brothers have never been caught but thinly-disguised enemies of the American government. Emiliano was a member of the Hong Kong Junta and showed considerable ability as the author of blood-thirsty proclamations. He returned to Manila about 18 months ago and took the oath of allegiance on his arrival. Word has also been received here that Mariano Toribio, the Marine Justice of the Peace, who attempted to incite an insurrection by writing letters to prominent Filipinos, commanding them to revolt, under penalty of death, was convicted of sedition and sentenced to two years imprisonment and to a fine of $2,000.

President Nicholas Murray Butler, of the Columbia University of New York city, has written to Secretary Taft announcing that the university has undertaken a special course of instruction in order to prepare men to occupy intelligently and effectively posts in connection with the public administration or development of South and Central American and oriental countries. The leader of the outlaws who murdered four American school teachers near Cebu, in the Philippine Islands, in June, 1902, has been captured and has confessed. He at first denied the charge, but later admitted his guilt and implicated others. It is said that some of the gang who had a part in the murder of the American teachers have already been killed in other skirmishes. The government will urge the extreme penalty for Cadutud, the leader.

Trouble on a Man-of-War.

A state of friction, almost bordering on mutiny, is said to exist on the new United States cruiser Galveston, now at Galveston. The vessel arrived there last Wednesday on her maiden trip to receive a silver service from the citizens of Galveston. The cruiser has been visited by thousands of people from all sections of the State.

On Tuesday Captain Cutler ordered his ship away from the wharves where she has been since her arrival to an anchorage in the roads, so that the officers might be better able to control the men, numbers of whom were leaving the ship and overstaying their shore leave. Federal and municipal officers have returned nearly two score of men found ashore, many of whom were said to have been intoxicated. These men vigorously protested against the treatment which they allege is accorded them on board ship by Captain Cutler. Men of long service who came from the vessel on shore duty and local people who were on board yesterday state that a condition verging on mutiny is existing there.

The men, among them several petty officers of long service, pronounce the voyage of the Galveston the most unbearable they ever have experienced. Many of them denounce the commander and state that they are overworked and underpaid.

They claim that for the most trivial offenses they are given the extreme penalty and that 60 of the men are in irons. Marines are said to be almost worn out preserving order on board. The cruiser sailed for Norfolk at noon yesterday.

Another Mrs. Hoch.

One more name may be added to the long list of matrimonial dupes of Johann Hoch, now on trial in Chicago, charged with murder, if the accusations made by Karl Frederick Löffler, of Durlach, Germany, are true. In a letter received in Chicago yesterday by the police Löffler declares he has identified a picture of Hoch as that of a man who married Löffler's niece, Justine Löffler, in Chicago, in 1902. Löffler declares that his niece, after going to New York with Hoch, married the alleged Bluebeard, whose assumed name was Richard Schmidt. The woman disappeared and Löffler says he believes she was murdered by the self-confessed bigamist. Miss Löffler, according to the information furnished in the letter from her uncle, came to America in 1896, going to Elkhart, Ind., to live with another uncle, Christian Löffler. Later she went to Chicago, where she met "Richard Schmidt." While in Elkhart the woman was given many valuable presents and several hundred dollars in money by her uncle.

James Eveleth Maynard, son of the late General William Maynard, died in Boston yesterday.

News of the Day.

The Atlantic Coast Line is reported to have leased the Louisville and Nashville railroad.

The question of constructing a canal to connect the Black Sea with the Baltic has again been taken up by the Russian Minister of Finance.

Postmaster General Cortelyou has notified the postmaster at Louisville that postal employees must avoid political activity or give up their places.

Because he knelt so much in the services of his church, the Rev. Hubert Wells, of Wilmington, Del., has had his left knee in a plaster cast for two weeks has been under the care of a physician.

According to a director of the First National Bank of Milwaukee, Frank G. Bigelow, the defaulting president, will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. Henry C. Goll, the assistant cashier, is still missing.

David Stuckel, a farmer, cut the throat of Newton Fields, 27 years old, at Morgantown, W. Va., yesterday, killing him instantly. The trouble was caused by a friend of Fields taking Stuckel's daughter buggy-riding.

Negotiations between the United States and China for a treaty restricting the immigration of Chinese to this country have practically been abandoned. It has been found impossible by the representatives of the two governments to reach a common ground of agreement as to many of the terms of the proposed treaty.

The dismembered bodies of a woman and her two daughter and son were found yesterday in a trunk in London and are believed to be the remains of the wife and children of a man now under arrest. The discovery was made at a furniture repository. The bodies had been dismembered and incased in a thick covering of glue.

The eighth annual conference for education in the South began its session at Columbia, S. C., last night. The conference was opened with an address of welcome by Gov. D. C. Heyward, followed by the annual address of the president of the conference, Robert C. Ogden, of New York. Dr. George H. Denny, president of Washington and Lee University, then made an address on "A Southern Interpretation of the Conference."

Shot by a Mob.

After working three hours with sledge hammers and pickaxes, a mob of twenty-five men broke in the parish jail at Homer, La., seventy-five miles northeast of Shreveport, yesterday, and shot Dick Craighead, inflicting wounds which will probably prove fatal. Craighead was charged with the murder of Mrs. Ike McKee, wife of his half-brother, and her little son.

The authorities were unaware of the design to mob the prisoner until it was too late to protect him. Every telephone and telegraph wire out of Homer was cut and the rifles of the Claiborne Guards, the local military company, were seized before the mob was made on the jail. So quietly did the mob work that scarcely any one in the little town was aware of what was taking place at the jail. Having dug a hole through the brick wall, the lynchmen crawled through the opening, but on reaching the steel cell in which the prisoner was confined, found it impossible to break the lock. They then began shooting at the covering prisoner through the bars of his cell, more than twenty shots being fired and nearly every one taking effect. The man's legs, arms, and portions of his body were literally riddled. Believing that Craighead was dead, the members of the mob left the prison and quickly dispersed.

When Sheriff Kirkpatrick and citizens of the town reached the jail they found Craighead still alive. It is stated that he told the sheriff the names of three of the lynchmen, and another prisoner in the jail told the name of another man whom he recognized. The names have not been divulged.

Discovered His Mistake.

The reason Dr. Francis Brauneis, a Fifth Avenue New York dentist, killed himself is, so his most intimate friend said last night, that, having reached the Oser stage of life, "he was afraid he could not make his young wife happy."

But his wife, in her apartments at 15 East One Hundred and Sixth street, is crying her pretty eyes out over the casket containing the old man's remains. Dr. Brauneis was 63 years old. Mrs. Brauneis is young enough to have been his granddaughter. Dr. Brauneis was most fond of the sedentary pursuits suited to his years, but for the sake of the happiness of his young wife he tried to live over again his departed youth, which was such a strain upon him that he at last decided to cast down the burden of life rather than live to have his wife discover that she had selected too old a man.

Accident to a Train.

A Chesapeake and Ohio passenger train struck a tree at Cass, on the Greenbrier division, Tuesday night, and the entire train was thrown into the river, 30 feet below. The train consisted of an engine, combination coach and day coach all of which were destroyed. Engineer C. H. Dean and Fireman Culp were badly injured. Six passengers were slightly hurt. All the injured were taken to the hospital at Cass. Fireman Culp died several hours after being taken from the wreck. It was learned later that Urish Byard, of Marlinton, a passenger, was severely injured he may not recover. He says the tree which caused the wreck fell almost directly in front of the engine.

Professors Roll Down Stairs.

Chancellor Andrew Sled, of the University of Florida, and Professor Marion, of the preparatory department of the University, engaged in a fist fight of the most picturesque character Wednesday. Continuous misunderstanding between the two led to the demand by Sled for Marion's resignation. Wednesday Marion called on Sled in the latter's private office and requested a leave of absence. Words of a sulphurous type are said to have passed, and soon the two emerged from the room struggling. The two rolled down the steps and landed with Marion, the larger man, on the bottom. Students rushed in and separated them.

Christians Murdered.

Paris, April 27.—The foreign missions board has received a dispatch from Shanghai saying that four missionaries and many Chinese have been murdered by the natives in Tibet.

Virginia News.

The barn belonging to H. Carpenter, in Orange county, was burned recently with three horses, two cows and farming implements. Loss over $1,000; no insurance.

The Easter Sunday collection at St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, Lynchburg, amounted to $12,600, which will be appropriated towards wiping out the debt of $14,000 on the building fund.

A fine barn belonging to Murray Wilson, near Mountain View, Stafford county, was burned Tuesday night, with two mules, corn and farming implements. No insurance. The fire is thought to be of incendiary origin.

At the meeting yesterday of the Confederate Memorial Literary Society in Richmond, a letter was read from Mrs. Margaret Davis Hayes, daughter of Jefferson Davis, denying the story told by one of the guards that Davis had a glass eye.

James Delay, 60 years old, keeper of a lodging house on Campbell's wharf, Norfolk, was held yesterday by the United States authorities, on the charge of conspiring with John McBride, now in the penitentiary, and others for the robbery of the Port Norfolk postoffice of $400 on June 11, 1904.

The barn belonging to Mrs. Nannie Turner, near The Plains, in Fauquier county, was destroyed by fire at an early hour Tuesday night. Four horses and a colt, with a quantity of hay, corn and farming implements were also burned. The insurance amounted to $1,000, which is a small part of the loss.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant, this week, to citizens of this State, of the following patents: Lloyd W. Brabble, of Deep Creek, for potato-digger; Jarard W. Lyttton, of Portsmouth, steam-trap; Thomas H. Pace, of Richmond, match box; Charles Mohring, of Charlottesville, for railroad system.

Broke Up Wedding With Pistol.

A rejected suitor, with a pistol, broke up a wedding in the midst of the ceremony at the Methodist Church at Campbell's, Isle of Wight county, Tuesday. A man was shot in the arm and a woman received a flesh wound in the face from bullets fired by the bride's former sweetheart. The somewhat meager reports of the affair received at Suffolk fail to give the name of the swain who did the shooting.

The wedding, which was so rudely interrupted was that of Martha Bunkley to William K. Davis. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Mr. Duckins. The wedding party and friends crowded the little church, and the ceremony was about half completed when the girl's former sweetheart, brandishing a pistol in his hand, strode down the aisle toward the altar just as the minister, following the words of the service, asked if there were any present who knew any reason why Martha Bunkley and William K. Davis should not be made man and wife.

Raising his pistol in threatening gestures, the neglected suitor ordered the ceremony to be stopped, but the Rev. Mr. Duckins paid no heed to the interruption and calmly proceeded with the service, while the bride, almost fainting, hung to the arm of the groom. Enraged by the refusal of the minister to obey his command, the rejected rival began to shoot. One bullet whizzed unobtainably close to the head of the officiating clergyman, who dropped his book and precipitately fled, leaving the couple at the altar half married.

At the first shot there was a wild rush for the doors and windows on the part of the spectators, who fell over one another in a mad struggle to get out of range. Before the crowd was all out two more shots were fired, one of the bullets striking a man in the arm and the other cutting open a woman's cheek.

It is stated that the rejected suitor, who was formerly Miss Bunkley's sweetheart, had threatened to prevent at all hazards her marriage to Davis.

Charged with Terrible Crime.

Charged with causing the death of a fellow-workman by throwing him into a vat of cream of tartar and then turning on the steam so as to parboil the body, Gustave Lebenz was a prisoner in Brooklyn Police Court yesterday. He was held upon a homicide charge, made upon information and belief by Police Captain Reynolds.

The story of the alleged connivance of Lebenz in the death of Theodore von Groski is a gruesome one. Two men were employed by the Tartar Chemical Company, in Brooklyn. On the night of April 15 von Groski disappeared, and his body, or what remained of it, was later found in the cream of tartar vat, the contents of which were boiling. At the time it was believed that the man had fallen into it. Von Groski's body was found by Lebenz and a fellow-workman, Joseph Schmidt. Schmidt told Captain Reynolds yesterday that there was no steam in the vat just before von Groski was missed, but that when von Groski disappeared Lebenz turned on the steam, and set the cream of tartar boiling. When the two men found von Groski's skeleton Lebenz exclaimed that he saw von Groski's lamp in the vat. Schmidt, however, told the police that it was Lebenz's lamp and not the dead man's.

Florence D. Elliott was appointed postmaster at Pluck, King George county, Va., today, vice Richard A. Johnson, deceased.

Letter to W. F. Lambert.

Alexandria, Va.
Dear Sir: If it took 10 gallons to paint your house last time with somebody else's paint, and takes 8 with Devco, we save you $8 or $10; for painting costs two or three times as much as the paint.

Mr. Ezra Rathwell, Williamsport, Pa., always used 11 gallons of mixed paint for his house; Devco took 4.
But that isn't all; that's only first cost; how long will it wear?

The paint that goes furthest in covering, wears best too.
All paint, true paint and full-measure, are on one side; part paint, false paint, and short-measure are on the other. What can you expect?

Yours truly
F. W. DEVCO & CO.

Teamsters' Strike in Chicago.

Chicago, April 27.—Teamsters' unions and Chicago employers of labor renewed their struggle this morning, and Mayor Dunne is trying to preserve order with 500 patrolmen. Two hundred and fifty officers are detailed to accompany wagons which carry goods to and from proscribed houses and 250 more are watching the stores and freight houses. Two of State street's big department stores will become the center of the strike today.

The wholesale districts were brought within the battle zone late yesterday afternoon, and employers and union drivers have clashed arms in a desperate struggle for the mastery. The labor storm began when the teamsters in the wholesale houses of Marshall Field & Co., Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., and J. V. Farwell & Co., left their work because three of their number had been discharged for refusal to deliver goods to Montgomery Ward & Co., and burst with menacing force last night, when a strike was ordered of the drivers in the retail stores of Marshall Field & Co., and Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co., and the teamsters of the A. M. Forbes Teaming Co. With the spreading of the strike this morning, there will be 597 union drivers either on strike or locked out. By night, according to union leaders, the number will be 800 and all of State street will be threatened with a tie-up.

President Shea of the teamsters announced that he "has his coat off." He prophesies that 2,000 teamsters will be in the struggle by tonight. The Employers Association, meanwhile, with unlimited resources and plans carefully laid, stands ready to meet the issue squarely. The leading business men of the city who have been moving slowly during the last two weeks in full expectation of a big strike, said they had been awaiting the bursting of the storm for some time and had no doubt of the outcome. In case of obstructions or violence beyond the capacity of the police to handle, the association is prepared to secure, on a moment's notice, a federal injunction. Behind such a court order would be the United States troops and the employers say they would not hesitate to appeal to martial law should developments warrant such a step. It is possible application to the federal courts for protection may be made today. A petition was prepared as soon as it was learned that two attacks, nearly resulting in riots, had been made late yesterday upon wagons.

The Fleets.

Saigon, Cochinchina, April 27.—All the Russian transports and the hospital ship Orel, which were left behind when Admiral Rojstevsky's main squadron left Kanranah bay, left the inner bay yesterday. The vessels now form an immense arc outside the harbor, extending from Cape Varella to the head of the Kanranah peninsula. Torpedo boats are kept busy steaming in all directions. Apparently, the squadron is waiting for rear Admiral Nebogotoff. The French cruiser Descares steamed around the Russian fleet and then returned to this port. Only four German ships now remain in the inner bay. The vessels captured by the Russians bearing cargoes as charged for Japan, were flying the German flag.

Tsingtau, Shantung Peninsula, China, April 27.—A private telegram received here says Admiral Rojstevsky's squadron has joined with the detachments of war vessels under Admiral Nebogotoff.

London, April 27.—The markets are weak on the reported cutting of the Hainan cable, and unconfirmed rumors of a great naval battle in which several of the Japanese war vessels are said to have been lost.

Triple Execution.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 27.—The first triple execution in the criminal records of Allegheny county occurred in the jail yard this morning. Walter Obey, Chas. Jackson and Charles Miles, negroes, were hanged for the murder of Ivan Kluzor, May 18th, last, at Leetsdale. Obey and Jackson were hanged together. Miles followed his companions to death within a few minutes. The men had written confessions of their lives, and gave the details of the shooting of Kluzor. Miles and Jackson were baptised, according to the custom of the Methodist Episcopal Church, yesterday, and this morning Obey received holy communion from Father Littenberger. The crime for which they were hanged, was a most brutal one. They held up Kluzor and another Hungarian on a county road, near Leetsdale. After robbing them they shot Kluzor, who was taken to the West Penn hospital, where he died. No special interest attended the execution. Jackson died of strangulation. The necks of Obey and Miles were broken. The bodies were turned over to the reputed wives of the men.

Russia's Financial Loss.

St. Petersburg, April 27.—The Risky Slovo says that financial experts have calculated the financial loss sustained by Russia owing to the war with Japan. Russia has $1,500,000,000 of state funds on which there has been a fall of seven per cent on account of the war, making the approximate loss $250,000,000. The shares of twenty-two municipal banks have decreased $110,000,000. The shares of rural banks have decreased to the amount of $170,000,000. Nobility and peasant banks have dropped $100,000,000 and the decrease in railway securities has reached $250,000,000. Proportionate losses on other securities have brought the aggregate financial loss to Russia, up to the enormous figures of $1,000,000,000. This loss will increase steadily, the experts declare, as long as the war continues.

Russian Cruisers Ordered.

Berlin, April 27.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg says that the Czar has ordered the immediate construction of three first class cruisers of the Bayan type, four gunboats, ten river gunboats, three submarine mine transport ships, thirty-one torpedo boats and ten coast defense vessels.

The resignation of M. Boulanger, as Minister of the Interior, is expected. General Trepoff, Governor General of St. Petersburg, is regarded as the most probable candidate to succeed him.

Full of Tragic Meaning.

Philadelphia, April 27.—One man was killed and eleven others injured by an explosion of dynamite, at Downingtown, last evening. Four of the injured will die. The Pennsylvania Railroad is making a new low grade freight line and employed a big gang of Italians to blast rocks and dig the road bed. A blast was prepared but before a number of the workmen could reach a place of safety, it exploded, prematurely. The man who was killed outright was literally blown to pieces and all the others were maimed, cut and bruised all over their bodies. The force of the explosion was felt for miles around. In houses near by, windows were shattered and dishes broken.

Sullivan Addresses Convicts.

Marquette, Mich., April 27.—John L. Sullivan, who is en route to Seattle, Washington, addressed the convicts in the State penitentiary yesterday by their special request and consent of the warden. "You are down and out now," he told the fellows in stripes, "but most of you will get another chance. Get ready and make the most of it." Sullivan talks of his coming match with Mitchell as though there was something in it and says his backers will deposit the forfeit when they reach Seattle. "I'm the only man in the United States who has made a million dollars honestly," was one of John L.'s modest remarks.

Elijah Johnson, a negro who on the night of November 4 last, shot and killed Julius Collins, colored in Philadelphia, in a quarrel over a woman, with whom both had lived, today paid the forfeit on the gallows at Moyamensing prison.

Ridicule Predictions.

St. Petersburg, April 27.—The predictions that great disorders will occur here on May 1st are ridiculed in well informed circles. The authorities declare these stories are merely newspaper sensations. General Trepoff declares all precautions have been taken to prevent any outbreaks. It is reported that new restrictions on the Jews will be published soon.

Nan Patterson's Trial.

New York, April 27.—Nan Patterson was radiantly happy today over the prospect of her acquittal of the killing of Caesar Young, and her confidence was shared not only by her counsel, but by the spectators in Recorder Goff's court. The failure of Hyman Stern, the pawnbroker, to identify J. Morgan Smith as the purchaser of the revolver, with which Young was shot, was a heavy score for the defense. There are the letters said to have been written by the accused girl to the Smiths to be produced in court and their contents may disclose damaging evidence concerning the purchaser of the revolver. Mrs. Margaret Young, the widow of the bookmaker, and John Millin, racing partner of Young, were in court today, to testify for the state. The prosecution will probably complete its case today. Abe Levy, counsel for the actress, said after coming into court this morning: "When the state concludes its case I shall probably ask for an adjournment for a day to determine whether I will put in a defense. There seems to me little necessity at present for putting in a defense. There is, however, little likelihood of calling Nan or any of the Smiths to the witness chair." Bernard McKeon, a brother-in-law of Caesar Young, was again on the stand this morning, but was excused from further examination until Mrs. Young had testified.

J. D. Millin, racing partner of Young, told of Young and Miss Patterson being in California together two years ago.

Mrs. Young testified that she knew of the relationship existing between her husband and Miss Patterson. She also told of the dinner party which she attended with her husband the night before the shooting.

Explosion in Feed Store.

Huntington, W. Va., April 27.—At 11:30 today an explosion occurred at the feed and seed house of Mosman Bros. and Co. on Third avenue. The explosion was heard for miles. The Mosman building was totally wrecked, and numerous buildings near by were badly damaged. The supposition is that the explosion was caused from gas. It is known that three persons were killed and there may be many other bodies beneath the debris. Following the explosion the wreckage caught fire. When the flames were subdued, hundreds of people began the work of moving the debris in an effort to recover the bodies of the victims. The following have been recovered from the ruins: Hall Ross, horribly cut about the body, will die; Ida Stafford, badly cut about head, arms, and body, will probably recover; W. E. Upton, cut about head and face, was bookkeeper for Mosman Bros.; Grace Hall, out about shoulders, and face, not critical; John Bayles, cut about body; Jeff Shinsler, cut about head, and arms. The explosion is said to have occurred from a little colored boy placing a lighted match to a leaking gas main. The front door of the wrecked building was blown a square away, and bricks rained for a time on the streets and avenues. Plate glass windows were broken squares away. Pizella's barbershop was next door to the Mosman building and persons half shaved were blown into the street. Bales of hay, barrels of lime and cement were hurled hundreds of feet into the air. It is believed that many bodies are beneath the wreckage. Every fire apparatus in the city is at the scene.

Pensions for Retiring Teachers.

New York, April 27.—Announcement was made today of another generous gift by Andrew Carnegie. It is a fund of $10,000,000 to provide for "retiring pensions for the teachers of universities, colleges and technical schools, in our country, Canada and Newfoundland." Mr. Carnegie's aim is to insure faithful teachers a competence after they have reached the age limit, to assist others who have been forced to retire earlier in life on account of physical disability, and to raise the standard of teaching in institutions where younger professors would be substituted for those who have outlived their usefulness were the trustees unable to continue their salaries. Everything is ready for the inauguration of the scheme. A committee of trustees including all the chief educators of the country has been named.

Mr. Carnegie sailed for Europe yesterday and gave explicit instructions that no mention should be made of the gift before his departure, from this country. The corporation which is being formed will be styled, "The Carnegie Foundation."
